All around the world, Paris is known as the "Ville Lumiere", the City of Light. As any large metropolis,

Walk through them and shiver at the habit of beautifying the skeletal remains, by decorating or arranging them in incredibly accurate ways. Fascinating and creepy at the same time, “the Barrel” inside the Crypt of the Passion will leave you astonished for its architecture: it is completely made up of bones! LivTours’ exploration of the Catacombs also gives you the rare chance to enter exclusive areas restricted to the general public.
